

A Historical Film Room in the Ipswich Historical Museum at Blackstone (the former Rhondda Collieries Office) has been commissioned, and is now available to view a number of films and documentries about coal mining.